

2017 Roster of the Ad Astra per Aspera Society

FOUNDED 3 June 1925 (2015 was our 90th anniversary) by CHARLES SOMERVILLE ROLLER, JR. - The "Big Boy"
8 September 1879 - 16 March 1963

The Ad Astra per Aspera Society was created by Major (later General) Charles S. Roller, Jr. in 1925. He envisioned having up to ten cadets inducted into the Society on the last day of each academic year based on "putting service before self." Initially, Roller selected the cadets to be so honored but eventually those who had been made Ad Astra voted for new inductees.

In the 60 years (1925-1984) of Ad Astra's existence, 550 cadets were inducted. Some years, there were as few as three added to the roster and in one year just before the school closed, no cadet was so honored. Of the 550 who were inducted, 271 have been reported as deceased while many others from the early days are presumed to have passed away by now. In October 2017, there are 188 cadet Ad Astras on our mailing list leaving 91 unaccounted for.

Seven Ad Astras were killed in action in World War Two.

In addition to the cadet members, 29 Honorary Ad Astras have been honored over the years including Virginia governors and outstanding faculty members including Colonel Hoover, Colonel Savedge, Colonel McCue, Colonel Deane, Colonel Gardner, Colonel Livick, Colonel Lucas and Colonel Koogler. Linda Roller Livick and Head Nurse Molly Canevet were the only women Ad Astras. Gary Nicholson, '70 and Ben Zinkhan, '60, were added to the roster in 1993 and 2015 respectively. Colonel and Mrs. Livick, Ben and former teacher Tim Mannasmith are the only honorary members still with us.

Listed are the years cadets became Ad Astra, not necessarily their years of graduation.
