

Registration enclosed Reunion set May 17-19

The 1996 Augusta Military Academy Annual Alumni Reunion will take place the third weekend of May - May 17-19 - at the Holiday Inn Golf and Conference Center on the outskirts of Staunton.

AMA Alumni Association President Gary Nicholson, '70, said that "the reunion will honor all AMA cadets who served in the military during the Korean and Vietnam Wars, Desert Storm, and other international crises. These fellows, unlike the veterans of World War II, did not come home to ticker tape parades and brass bands. It is high time these men are honored by Augusta, as they have honored her with their good and faithful service."

Classes also will be honored

The AMA Classes of 1936, 1946, 1956, 1966, and 1976 also will be honored. Cadets from those classes are particularly encouraged to attend the 1996 AMA alumni get-together.

A hospitality suite at the hotel will be open to all alumni Thursday and Friday evenings, and throughout the day and evening on Saturday. The Saturday night banquet will be the venue for the honors awarded to AMA's veterans, to the classes celebrating decennial anniversaries, and to alumni who have contributed to one of the Alumni Association funds in the past year. The Staunton Ovation will provide live musical entertainment at the Saturday banquet.

Big Barracks may be off limits

The new owners of AMA have invited alumni to visit the school grounds on Saturday, May 18. But new owner Kennard Campbell has expressed concern about anyone entering Big Barracks because of the building's fragile condition and insurance restrictions. A Founders' Day ceremony will be held in the Old Stone Church Cemetery on Saturday afternoon with Mal and Linda Livick attending.

The AMA Alumni Association, Inc. Annual Membership Meeting will be at 10 AM Saturday at the hotel, where board members for the coming year will be elected. This will be followed by an Alumni Board meeting where officers for the next year will be elected. All alumni are invited to attend both of these meetings.

Silent auction items sought

Alumni and friends are requested to donate valuable items for a silent auction to raise money for the Association. Items should be in good condition, and worth at least $25 each.

Room reservations should be made with the Holiday Inn by calling, toll free, 1/800/ 932-9061. Be sure to tell them that you are with AMA! This will assure that you get the special $65-a-night AMA rate.

"It's going to be an unforgettable reunion," said Nicholson. "No son of Augusta should miss this great weekend."

March 1996

Dear Fellow Alumnus:

In less than two months, our 1996 alumni reunion will be underway at the Holiday Inn Golf and Conference Center on the outskirts of Staunton. Those who attended last year's salute to the AMA alumni who served in World War II tell me that they will never forget the experience

This year, we honor the men of Augusta who went off to fight in two unpopular conflicts - the Korean War and the Vietnam War. As I have said before, these fellows did not come home to brass bands and parades like the WW II vets did. And it's high time that we told them how grateful we are for their sacrifices. AMA alumni who served during those times will pay homage to their comrades in arms, living and dead, at our traditional Saturday night banquet. We also will honor veterans of Desert Storm, Panama, Granada, Bosnia, and other military operations where men were or are in harm's way.

It will also be the year to salute the classes with decennial anniversaries - the Classes of 1936, 1946, 1956, 1966, and 1976. We are looking for particularly good representation from these five classes. Of course, we will have our annual Founder's Day ceremonies Saturday at the Old Stone Church Cemetery.

With our school closed, probably forever, this annual pilgrimage to Fort Defiance has taken on a new meaning and significance to us all. I look forward to seeing you the weekend of May 17-19!
