

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

ALPER, DR. MELVIN GUSTAVE `39

Died 23 February 2013 at Silver Spring, MD, after a fall. He was 91. Captain, US Army Medical Corps, with service in World War II.

Alper was a retired ophthalmologist: University of Virginia undergraduate and medical school, Phi Beta Kappa, Raven Society. He did advanced work at the Harvard Medical School, University of Pennsylvania, and George Washington Medical School.

He was Chairman, Department of Ophthalmology, Washington Hospital Center. Founder, Washington (DC) Eye Physicians and Surgeons. Fellow, The American College of Surgeons. Consultant to King Edward VII Hospital in Bermuda.

He is survived by his wife, Jane, children Nancy and John, and grandchildren Scott, Ari, Lucia and David. Pre-deceased by his brother Dr. Morton Alper, `42.

At Augusta three years: Platoon sergeant, Company C; Honor Roll; Peep football; wrestling; Bayonet editor-in-chief; Recall associate editor; medals for Best in Latin and Best in History. Ad Astra Per Aspera. Roller Society.

(Reported by Colonel Ron Sollod, `50.)

(2013 Summer Bayonet)