

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

ANDERSON, MAJOR MARCUS E. '84

Major Marcus E. Anderson, Commandant of Cadets at AMA in the 1980s, passed away in St. Cloud Hospital, St. Cloud, FL, on 15 May 2003.

Major Anderson served in the Vietnam War and was an Assistant Professor of Military Science and Tactics (PMS&T) at VMI before he came to Augusta as Senior Army Instructor. After he retired, he came back to AMA as the Commandant.

He received a degree in economics from James Madison University. Major Anderson lived for many years in Coral Gables and moved to St. Cloud in 2001.

Survived by his wife, Beverley; daughters Danette Torre of Rome, Italy, Barbara McQuillan of Cape Coral, FL, Rhonda Greer of Media, PA, and Marcy Orozco of Cape Coral; and son, Vincent Anderson of Albuquerque, NM. Brothers Bertram of Sebastian, FL, and Thomas of Cape Coral; seven grandchildren.

Major Anderson was buried at the Arlington National Cemetery with full honors.

(2003 Fall Bayonet)