

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

ANDERSON, VIRGIL WARD '29

Died 2 October 2003, in Roanoke, at age 89.

Served in the US Army in World War II. Worked for the Rockydale Quarries for 58 years.

He and his son, Steve, visited the AMA Museum on 10 August 2003.

Survived by two daughters: Peggy Thompson, of Salem, VA, and Pat Johnston, of Vinton, VA; a son, Steve, of Roanoke; five grandchildren: David Thompson, Mike and Jeff Carner, LeeAnn Brown and Sarah Anderson; and six great-grandchildren.

At Augusta one year: He was a Day Boy and walked seven miles round trip to Fort Defiance from New Hope every school day. He and his father attended AMA at no tuition because his great-grandfather had donated area land for a Confederate cemetery.

(2004 Winter Bayonet)