

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

BEARDEN, HORACE JONES `44

Died 5 February 2011 at Waycross, GA, after an extended illness. He was 84.

Bearden served in the Army in World War II with tours in Germany and Japan. He was awarded two Bronze Stars and the World War Victory Medal.

He earned a BS from Clemson in textile manufacturing and was a private pilot.

Survived by his wife, Guinelle Bearden of Waycross; a son, Douglas, and a daughter, Nancy Swindell; two grand-children, Heather and Adam Swindell; a stepson, Lester Bennett, and several step-grandchildren.

At Augusta one year: Private, B Company.

(2012 Winter Bayonet)