

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

CARSTARPHEN, JOSEPH MARTIN JR. '52 "Bip"

Died 20 May 2014 in McAdenville, NC, aged 81. He had graduated from UNC and served in the Army before joining Pharr yarns.

Carstarphen was the CEO of Pharr yarns for more than thirty years, during which time he managed the change from cotton to synthetic fibers and became a recognized leader of North Carolina business. His community outreach was equal to his business acumen and earned him widespread recognition as an enlightened businessman.

He is survived by Catherine, his wife of fifty-nine years; a daughter; two sons; six grandchildren; and a brother.

At Augusta two years: SGT in D Company; swim team, lacrosse; Roller Rifles.

(2014 Summer Bayonet)