

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

Frederick Frank Cazenave Jr, '63

October 14, 1945 - October 2, 2020

Pvt. 1; Cpl. 2,3; Sgt. 4; NROTC winner 4; Cotillion Club 3; RECALL 3; Chess Club 2,3; Honor Roll 1,2,4.

Honors come to Fred rapidly in his senior year. A Naval ROTC scholarship winner, Fred was also picked for an Air Academy appointment. Small and limbo-minded, Fred's mind is as quick as his dance movements. Master of the quick comeback and incisive cut, Fred's maturity began to show as he gained responsibility. Quick to ferret out information, his aid to the '62 RECALL was in the superior vein. He's that way in everything he attempts.

LCDR Frederick Frank Cazenave, Jr., USN (Ret.), 74, of Chesapeake, VA, passed away on October 2, 2020.

Born in New Orleans, LA, he was the son of the late Frederick F., Sr., and May N. Cazenave. He retired honorably as a Lieutenant Commander from the U. S. Navy. His memberships include: Past Master of Great Bridge Masonic Lodge No. 257, member of Willis V. Fentress Masonic Lodge No. 296, Past High Priest of Great Bridge Royal Arch Chapter, and a member of Khedive Shrine Center.

Left to cherish his memory: his wife, Patricia A. Cazenave; three sons, Rick, Chris, and John Cazenave; brother, Dr. Craig Cazenave; and three grandchildren, Rick, Matthew, and Christopher.
