AUGUSTA MILITARY ACADEMY

FORT DEFIANCE VIRGINIA

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life.

Charles Watson Jordan ‘42

October 10, 1923 – August 31, 2017

Charles Watson Jordan, Sr., 93, widower of Ruth (Epps) Jordan, of Fort Defiance, passed away Thursday, August 31, 2017 in Brookdale of Staunton.

Charles was born in Fort Defiance on October 10, 1923, a son of the late Claude Wilson and Violet (Watson) Jordan.

He attended Augusta Military Academy as a member of the Class of 1942. AMA is located directly across Route 11 from his family residence.

Charles was an active member of the Augusta Stone Presbyterian Church, a veteran of the United States Army Air Corps trained on B-17 and B-25 bombers, served during World War II, and retired from AT&T, where he was employed as an Engineering Supervisor. He enjoyed flying small aircraft, sailing, home improvement projects, and tinkering with and repairing various mechanical devices.

In addition to his wife and parents, Charles was preceded in death by a son, Ted (Theodore) Thompson Jordan; two siblings, Katherine Kirby and Claude “Buddy” Jordan, Jr.

He is survived by one son, Charles W. Jordan, Jr., and wife, Linda, as well as three grandsons, their wives, and five great grandchildren.

At AMA, “Charly,” First Year: Private Co. “B,” Football Team, Track Team.

https://archive.org/details/augusta-military-academy-recall-1942