

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

CHAUNCEY, EDWARD C. JR., '49

Died 3 January 2014 of pneumonia at home in Culpeper, VA, just short of his 82nd birthday. Ed enlisted in the Air Force and served in the Korean War.

He graduated from Virginia Tech. In 1985 he retired from his job as a computer analyst in DC and opened a custom framing and antique framing store in Remington, VA. He and his wife were dedicated volunteers at the AMA Museum until ill health curtailed his activities.

He is survived by his wife of 59 years, Roberta "Bobby"; a sister; three daughters; seven grandsons; a granddaughter; and a great-granddaughter. He was a member of the Roller Society.

At AMA three years: Sergeant, D Company; Accomplished marksman and captain of the AMA Rifle Team; Tiger football; JV baseball; Decorating Committee; Secretary/Treasurer, Aeronautics Club; Monogram Club.

Reported by Tommy Clements, '50, and Bill "Red" Rubush, '49.

(2014 Winter Bayonet)