

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

COFFMAN, MEREDITH CARRINGTON '40

9 November 1998 in Alexandria, VA, age 83, after a long illness.

AMA faculty member in the late '30's and early '40's, he headed Augusta's elementary school division. Attended Emory and Henry, Lynchburg College.

After teaching at AMA, he went back to law school at George Washington University, and he was a practicing criminal lawyer in Washington, DC, for 45 years before he retired.

Survived by a brother, James Coffman, of Alexandria. His wife, Julia, preceded him in death.
