

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

COPPING, TAYLOR W. '43

Died 12 December 2009 at Bon Secours St Mary's Hospital, Richmond.

He served on the Army Air Corps in World War II and later earned a Master of Science degree from University of Richmond.

He was the Executive director, American Lung Association in Virginia and New Mexico. He was also an accomplished golfer and guitarist.

Survived by his wife, three children and three grandchildren.

At AMA one year: C Company.

(2010 Fall Bayonet)