

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

DAVIS, CARL WILSON '58

1 August 1998, during a training session for Old Dominion Athletic Conference football officials, in Richmond, age 58.

Survived by a son, Deric, of Waynesboro and a brother, John, of Gofftown, NH.

At Augusta one year, he also attended Virginia Tech. Employee of Chesterfield County. For 27 years, an umpire, the man in the middle in football refereeing.

(1998 September Bayonet)