

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

---

DAVIS, SAMUEL JR. '35

Died 1 February 2001, Clarksville, VA, age 82, in the same house in which he was born.

Davis graduated from Clarksville High School, Augusta Military Academy and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where he was a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity and a pitcher on the baseball team.

He served in the Pacific Theater as a Naval officer in World War II and returned home to succeed his father as President of Samuel Davis Hardware. He retired in 1984.

An outstanding golfer, he served on the board of the Virginia Golf Association. He founded and was first chairman of the Kinderton Invitational Golf Tournament which drew amateurs from six states. He coached youth league baseball, football and golf. He served for 43 years on the Mecklenburg County Electoral Board, and on the advisory board of Central Fidelity Bank, now Wachovia.

Survived by his wife of 56 years, Mary; three children, Samuel, III, Peter and Jane; seven grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

At Augusta one year: Varsity Football, Basketball, and Baseball. He was an outstanding pitcher.

(2001 Summer Bayonet)