

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

DORRINGTON, ALVIE JAMES `62

Died 2 January 2012 at home in Kissimmee, FL, of pancreatic cancer. He was 68.

Attended Lincoln Technical Institute in Philadelphia and was the owner of A. J. Dorrington Refrigeration in Vineland and Kissimmee, FL. He was a, avid bass fisherman, Phillie and Eagle fan, and was involved with local Little League.

He is survived by his loving companion, Mary Oursier; sister, Judith Sherban; son, Scott; and daughter, Kayley; and six grandchildren.

At Augusta three years: 1st lieutenant, C Company; Roller Rifles; varsity baseball and football; Cotillion Club.

(Reported by Douglas Blair, `62.)

(2012 Winter Bayonet)