

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

---

EANES, ROBERT CLAY '84

Robert Clay Eanes, formerly football coach and Director of Admissions at AMA, died at the University of Virginia Medical Center in Charlottesville on 27 December 2005. He was 69.

Eanes lived in Waynesboro where he had owned and operated Central Transportation Agency Inc. since 1985. He was a graduate of Fishburne Military School and the University of Kentucky. After serving in the US Navy, he coached football at Fork Union and Fishburne before coming to AMA in the early 1980's.

Eanes is survived by his wife of 22 years, Brenda Campbell Eanes; four children: Rhea '84, Cheryl Eanes Kidd, Bobby, and Billy; two grandsons; and two sisters, Joanne Goin of Lynchburg and Barbara Laslo of Clifton Forge.

(2006 Spring Bayonet)