

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

FLETCHER, DAVID E. JR. '54

Died 1 January 2015 in Elkins, WV, after a long illness. He was 79. Attended Greenbrier Military School and graduated from Augusta and the University of California, Santa Monica.

Following service in the US Army with duty in Berlin, he was a swimming instructor on the "Gold Coast" at Miami Beach. He tried out for the Olympic swim team in 1976 but was disqualified because of phlebitis in his leg.

Dave entered the insurance business with his father before forming Central West Virginia Underwriters, which became the largest insurance agency in Central West Virginia, Ohio, and Pennsylvania.

He is survived by his wife, Jackie; a sister, Betty Ellen Ruddle, of Annapolis, MD; a brother, Thomas, of Fairmont, WV; and numerous nieces and nephews.

At Augusta two years: MSGT, A Company; swim team; basketball; baseball.

(2015 Summer Bayonet)