

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

FLIPPIN, WILLIAM CARR '37

Ned Flippin, 91, of Fort Seybert, WV, died 31 March 2006, of heart failure at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital in Harrisonburg.

He attended school in Alderson, WV, and Augusta. He was an East Coast high school wrestling champion in 1933.

Flippin was a sawyer and a lumberman who worked as a cooper at Kimble and Tylor Cooperage. He worked in the Baltimore shipyards during World War II building Liberty Ships.

Survived by a daughter, Phyllis Moore, of Bridgewater, VA, and a son, James of Fort Seybert.

At Augusta for one year: Private, Company B; Intramural winner; Wrestling team, Monogram Club.

(Reported by Jerry Wildman, '57.)

(2006 Summer Bayonet)