

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

FOGLE, CHARLES CLIFFORD '39

Died 19 September 2000, in Los Angeles, of pneumonia.

World War II service with the Office of War Information.

In 1949, Fogle accepted a producer's challenge to create a science-fiction series for TV. He helped create "Captain Video" TV series, and wrote for such TV shows as "Perry Mason," "The Twilight Zone," and "Bonanza." "Captain Video" ran until 1956. In later life, he ran a school for stand-up comedians in California.

Survived by four sons: Lawrence, of Santa Clara, CA; Robert, of Richmond, VA; Peter, of Novato, CA, and Michael, of Great Falls, VA.

At Augusta two years: Private in Company B, Bugler, Peep Football.

(2000 Fall Bayonet)