

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

GEORGE, HARRY Y. JR. '31

6 December 2003, at Frederick Memorial Hospital, Frederick, MD. He was a graduate of Washington and Lee and served as a Lieutenant, US Navy, in World War II.

A member of the Brunswick, MD, High School championship baseball team, he went on to play baseball at AMA and W&L.

He was the owner of S. W. George and Company and the Chairman of Advisory Board, F&M Bank.

Survived by his wife of 52 years, Bowie Marley George, and three children: Barbara Bowie George of Greensboro, NC; Harry George III, of Frederick; and Randolph George of Brunswick; and two grandchildren.

Harry was at AMA for only one year, a Private in D Company.

(2004 Winter Bayonet)