

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

Roderick Rene Gilliam, '75

November 18, 1957 - May 4, 1984

Corporal, "C" Company
Guidon

Roderick Rene Gilliam, 26, of 509 Warren Ave., Front Royal, died Friday.

Mr. Gilliam was born Nov. 18, 1957, in Front Royal, the son of Ronald S. and Caroline Gilliam. He was a member of Nineveh Presbyterian Church.

Surviving are his father, of Front Royal; his mother, Caroline Calder, of Front Royal; his paternal grandmother, Margaret E. Gilliam of Front Royal; his maternal grandmother, Jane M. Wilson of Toms Brook; two brothers, Sheldon Scott Gilliam and Carlton Clay Gilliam, both of Front Royal; three sisters, Sara Shawn Gilliam, Laura Ann Gilliam, and Mary Elizabeth Gilliam, all of Front Royal; his stepfather, Michael Ian Calder of Front Royal; his stepmother, Kathryn F. Gilliam of Front Royal; and a stepbrother, Robert J. Traister Jr. of Front Royal.

A funeral will be 2 p.m. Thursday at Nineveh Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Bruce G. Stevens officiating. Burial will be in Prospect Hill Cemetery, Front Royal.

Pallbearers will be Sheldon Scott Gilliam, Carlton Clay Gilliam, Willie Strother Jr., Glenn Fincham, Robert J. Traister Jr., and Andy Gilliam.

The family will receive friends at Maddox Funeral Home in Front Royal Wednesday from 7 to 9 p.m.