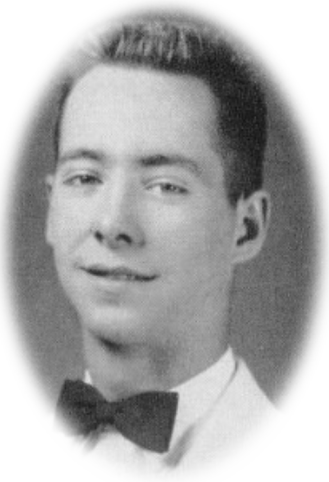
FORT DEFIANCE VIRGINIA

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life.

Gray Walton Hume III ‘57

November 8, 1938 – March 15, 1982



MANASSAS - Funeral service for Mr. Gray Walton Hume III will be held at the St. James Episcopal Church on Wednesday at 10 a.m. The Rev. David Knight of Winchester will officiate, and burial will be in the Union Cemetery, Leesburg.

Mr. Hume, 43, died Monday at the Oak Springs Nursing Home. He was a teacher at Fauquier High School. Survivors include his parents, Gray W. Hume, Jr. and Doris S. Hume of Alexandria; two brothers, James C. D. Hume of Millbrae, Calif and Robert P. Hume and one sister, Miss Jean Hume of Davis, Calif.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Blue Ridge Hospice, Winchester Memorial Hospital, Winchester, Va. 22601.

At AMA, Gray was a 4-year cadet, Pyt., 1; SFC, 2; 2nd Lt: 3: Capt, 4:

Swimming, 2-4; Football, 2, 3; Baseball, 4; Cotillion Club, 1-4; Decorator, 3, 4; Roller Rifles, 3, 4; The RECALL, 4.

“Gray, ‘’C’’ Company’s able captain, is leaving behind a record distributed evenly in all fields of activity. Ranging from swimming and decorating to water hustler for the football team, Gray has proved that he is versatile. His work in decorating frequently meant that Augusta had another outstanding dance, and his personality meant that bull sessions were often held. Gray did not confine his activity to Augusta, however, for Stuart Hall saw quite a bit of him.”
