

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

HANKEY, STACEY MARLIN JR. '42

5 March 2002 in Pittsburgh. No other details.

Hankey interrupted his engineering studies at the University of Pittsburgh to serve in the US Army during World War II. For three years he served in the European Theater, finishing with a year in Berlin with the Military Police.

He returned to civilian life and Duffs College, where he studied accounting. In his forty-year career he worked with Main and Company, which later merged with Peat Marwick. He was a member of the American and Pennsylvania Institutes of CPA as well as Masonic and veterans' groups.

At Augusta for three years, he was consistently on the Honor Roll and was inducted into the Ad Astra per Aspera Society.

(2004 Winter Bayonet)