

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

Ronald Duane Hatcher, '67

September 5, 1948 - April 3, 2019

Sgt., 2; Pvt., 1, Varsity football, 2; JV basketball, 2; Golf, 2; Privilege List, 2; Junior Declaimer's Medal, 1.

"Just one more question, Capt. Cly- more!" Ron is in perpetual motion and he loves it. Center of activity and the center of attraction, Ron parlays small affairs into big time operations—and he does date "Miss Luray", right along with secret dates over the weekends. Friendly to everyone, Ron is always classified as a nice guy. Few cadets remember him as a new cadet years ago, but he was already winning medals then. He just won't stop.

Ronald Duane Hatcher, 70, husband of Janet Lee Hatcher, of Staunton, died Wednesday, April 3, 2019 in Albemarle County.

He was born September 5, 1948 in Peoria, Illinois, a son of the late Lilburn Duane and Agnes Ellen (McShane) Hatcher.

A Celebration of Life service will be conducted at 3 p.m. Sunday, April 7, 2019 in Marquis Memorial United Methodist Church by the Rev. Elizabeth von Trapp Walker, Pastor Scott Reese, and the Rev. Robert W. Sharp.

There will be a family graveside service on Monday, April 8, 2019 in Oak Lawn Mausoleum and Memory Gardens with masonic rites.

The family will receive friends following the service at the church on Sunday.

Memorials may be made to the Building Fund at Marquis Memorial United Methodist Church, 1614 W. Beverley Street, Staunton, VA 24401.
