

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

HENRY, LLOYD RANDOLPH. '48

10 January 2009, Savannah, GA. Enrolled in the University of Maryland but left after two years for military service during the Korean War as a Navy medic.

Lloyd graduated from the University of Tennessee in 1957. He worked for Monsanto in Pensacola and was Project manager for BASF in both Anderson, SC, and Williamsburg, VA. He was a faithful church man and served several churches as a youth leader. He was known for his quick wit and for his love of the water and boating.

Survived by his wife; his four children; ten grandchildren; and one great grandchild.

At AMA four years: 1st Lieutenant, A Company; Roller Rifles; Honor Committee; fencing and lacrosse.

(2009 Summer Bayonet)