

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

---

HIGGINS, EDWARD WAYNE '62

Wayne Higgins died on 17 May 2007, at Sentara General Hospital. He was 59.

Higgins, a retired vice president of Old Dominion University, was an alumnus of ODU with a BS and MBA in business. He joined the university in 1973 as director of operations. In 16 years at ODU, he was responsible for guiding the university's capital development program with the renovation or construction of 36 major projects valued at more than $130 millions. Under Higgins' leadership, Old Dominion acquired a $10 million property adjacent to the campus, created an endowment and university fund, and expanded student housing by 1,350 beds. After resigning from ODU, he became executive vice president for finance at Lamar University in Texas.

Higgins was survived by a daughter, Margaret Doummar of Virginia Beach.

At Augusta four years: 1st Lieutenant, E Company; Cotillion Club; Roller Rifles; Honor Committee.

(Reported by his roommate Bob Ray, '62.)

(2007 Summer Bayonet)