

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

HOAGLAND, JEFFREY K. '64

Marine Cpl. Jeffrey K. Hoagland, 19, of Falls Church, died 24 April 1969 from wounds sustained April 22 in Quang Nam Province, South Viet-Nam.

Cpl. Hoagland enlisted in the Marine Corps in June 1968, after graduating from Yorktown High School in Arlington, where he was a member of the wrestling team. He was assigned to Viet-Nam in November 1968 and was serving an extended six-month tour of duty when he was killed in action. Quang Nam is the province whose capital is Da Nang, which was a major Marine area of operations and the site of the III MAF (Third Marine Amphibious Force) Headquarters.

Surviving are his mother, Elizabeth Hoagland, and three brothers, William, Gregg, and Glenn, and a sister, Jill, all of the home, 2246 Pimmitt Dr, Falls Church.

Hoagland was at Augusta for three years, leaving after the sixth grade.
