

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

HOUCHENS, DOUGLAS CLAY '34

Died 19 August 2008 at Davidson, NC, at age 92.

He grew up in Richmond, but spent his youth in New York City. He was a veteran of World War II who served as a surgical assistant in Europe.

Houchens took his MFA degree at Richmond Professional Institute and was a highly respected painter who continued painting until the last days of his life. He taught art at Davidson College and founded the Art Department there.

He is survived by two daughters, both of Eugene, OR.

At AMA two years: Tiger basketball, wrestling, swim team, varsity track, fencing, and tennis; Recall co-photographer, C Company.

(2010 Winter Bayonet)