

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

HOWARD, ADRIAN L. '56 "Abeie"

3 November 1998, at home in Richmond, VA.

Retired general contractor .North Carolina State University, civil engineering. For many years, an umpire in Little League and college events. Deacon, Second Baptist Church.

Survived by his wife, Rose Marie (whom he met at Stuart Hall); three sons, Adrian, Jr., John R., and Scott T. Howard; two daughters, Deborah Perkins and Virginia Schiffner; his mother, Ozella T. Howard; two sisters, Martha Narron and Jerry Kennedy; seven grandsons and a granddaughter. He was predeceased by his father, M. E. Howard, and a sister, Ann T. Mock.

At Augusta three years: Ad Astra per Aspera; First Captain and Battalion Commander; Commander of Roller Rifles; Honor Committee; Student Body Officer; Editor, Bayonet; Editor, Recall; football; basketball; baseball; Literary Society; Decorating Committee; Cotillion Club; Final Ball Committee, Valedictorian.

(1999 January Bayonet)