

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

LAYNG, ANTHONY TOBIN '43

Died 12 June 2011 at Winston-Salem, NC, where he was a Professor of Anthropology. US Marine Corps, Korean War, Purple Heart.

Solebury Prep, Rollins College and Columbia University with an MA from Indiana University and PhD in anthropology from Case Western. Taught at Washington, Oberlin and Rollins Colleges before a 20-year tenure at Elmira College in New York State.

Author of journal on the Caribe Indians of Dominica and numerous magazine articles. Involved in the Civil Rights Movement in Mississippi and for four-year leader for Operation Crossroads Africa in Lesotho. Served on Winston-Salem Human Relations Commission and on the Board of Americans United for Separation of Church and State. Avid tennis player.

Survived by his wife Donna Crossed Layng; a daughter, Kristin Szakos, a member of the City Council in Charlottesville; two granddaughters, Anna and Maria Szakos; and two step-children; and a brother, Geoff Layng, '47, was Captain/Adjutant his senior year at Augusta.

At Augusta one year in the Junior School.

(2011 Fall Bayonet)