

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

LONG, HOYLE BENNY JR. '55

26 June 2004, at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital aged 65.

Long attended public schools in Shenandoah County, Augusta Military Academy, and graduated from Randolph-Macon Academy in Front Royal.

President and owner of BOA Distributors-Wholesale Jobbers and Bedrooms of America Museum, both in New Market. Past President, New Market Chamber of Commerce; Past President, Stonewall Jackson High School Booster Club. He was an active supporter of the Boy Scouts, Rotary, Jaycees, and the New Market Volunteer Fire Department.

Survived by his wife, Judy Frye Long; two sons, Barton and Harold, both of New Market; a daughter, Dr. Cynthia Long Lasher of Waynesboro; a stepson, Adam Knupp of Quicksburg; a stepdaughter, Leigh Knupp Lemon of Spokane, WA; a sister, Lisa Long, of Front Royal; and two granddaughters.

At Augusta four years: 1st Sergeant, C Company; Honor Roll; Roller Rifles; basketball, baseball, basketball team manager.

(2004 Fall Bayonet)