

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

McCRAV, PORTER A. '35

Died 1 December 2000 at his New Jersey home. A native of Waynesboro, he was 92 years old. He was an assistant professor at AMA 1930-35, and later a professor at VMI.

He also served as an International ambassador for the Modern Museum of Art and was a close friend of the Rockefeller family and a Trustee of the Woodrow Wilson Birthplace. He was involved in a number of nonprofit organizations established by the Rockefeller family which endorsed and supported artistic and cultural programs.

Survived by his sister, Frances Jacob, of Eugene, OR.

(2001 Spring Bayonet)