

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

William Phineas Mitchell, '66

November 7, 1946 - October 28, 2018

A two year cadet, William was Pvt year one and Sgt year two. He played football both years, Captain of the team year two. Privilege list 2; Bayonet editor 2; All Military Football 2; Lacrosse 2;

William Phineas Mitchell Charleston, 71, of Charleston, South Carolina, formerly of Covington, VA, husband of the late Mary Jane Forbes Mitchell, entered into eternal rest Sunday, October 28, 2018.

Bill was born November 7, 1946 in Montour Falls, NY. He was the son of the late William Phineas Mitchell and Mildred Sizer Mitchell. He attended Covington High School and played football at Augusta Military Academy and Fredrick College. He also attended Appalachian State University and graduated from East Tennessee State.

Bill was a builder and contractor for over 40 years and his projects included sailboats, Folly Beach Marina Dock and Boat Landing, and Folly Beach Baptist Church. He also built schools, commercial buildings, and private homes. He had the wind in his face most of his life and as an avid sailor and Harley Rider, his free spirit took him on many adventures covering the United States.

He is survived by his daughter, Amy Lynn Mitchell Fennell of Charleston, SC; a sister, Margaret Mitchell Carpenter of Covington, VA; brother-in-law Colonel Jerry Eubank and his children, Brigadier General Chris Eubank and Captain Craig Eubank, USNR; a nephew, Robert Joseph Carpenter of Covington, VA; a niece, Kim Nevetral; a special friend, Shirley Lorraine Mitchell of Charleston, SC; and his beloved feline companion, Peek-A-Boo. Bill was preceded in death by his son, William Phineas Mitchell III; a sister, Patricia Walton Eubank; and a brother, James Robert Mitchell.

Memorials may be made to Pet Helpers, 1447 Folly Road, James Island, SC, 29412.
