

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

MOORE, JAMES EDWARD III '42

Born 5 December 1924 in Huntington, WV, and died 26 February 1993 in Stockton, CA. He was a Mormon and an Army veteran of WWII.

Moore attended schools in Huntington and AMA; received a chemistry degree from Marshall U, an MD from MCV, and a master's in medical science from Ohio State. He had a private practice in Dayton, Ohio, where he formulated [Mylanta]. He was a founding member of the American Society of Clinical Oncology, worked at Baylor, and practiced in Fresno, Hayward, and Fremont, CA.

At Augusta for two years: Sergeant, Band; Boxing, Honor Roll, Glee Club, Minnow football team, and Intramurals.