

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

MOTTA CARDOZE, ROBERTO '30

29 July 2003, in Panama, age 90.

Member of a leading family in Panamá involved in banking and cattle business. He was President of Banco Continental de Panamá (Panamanian Continental Bank) from its founding. Owner of Hacienda Motta Hermanos, SA (Motta Brothers Enterprises/Ranch Corporation) and Abbatoir Nacional SA (National Meatpackers). Involved in other businesses in the securities and investment arena.

Survived by his wife; Dora Alvarado de Motta; a son, Roberto Motta Alvarado; two daughters, Ana Mae Motta de Patton and Maria Antonia Motta; ten grandchildren and 20 great grandchildren.

At Augusta two years: Baseball, football, and basketball.

(Reported by Duncan Wong, '52)

(2003 Fall Bayonet)