

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

NOBOA ZALDUMBIDE, DR. EDUARDO D. '60

June 2013. No details.

Dr Noboa is a graduate of Johns Hopkins. He was a surgeon in Mexico City before going to the Cleveland Clinic to do laparoscopic surgery. He later returned to his hometown of Quito, Ecuador, where he finished his sterling career.

He served as a Senator in the Ecuadorian Parliament. Married, he had six children: two are lawyers, one a veterinarian, one son is an MD, one is in marketing, and one is an agricultural engineer.

At AMA three years: 2d Lieutenant in E Company, member of the Roller Rifles, on the fencing and track teams, and on the Honor Committee.

Reported by Rodrigo Fernandez Salvador, '66.

(2013 Fall Bayonet)