

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

O'HARA, JAMES MALCOLM '39

James O'Hara died 14 July 2006, in Yorktown, VA. He was an advocate of historic preservation, particularly in the Yorktown area.

In WW II, he was a captain in the US Army stationed in The Philippines.

He was a graduate of Christopher Newport College and President of the County City Supply Corporation. With his father, he was a co-developer of Marlbank Farm, a residential community in Yorktown.

He was survived by Sarah, his wife of 64 years; three daughters, Sarah, Lucy, and Mary; eight grandchildren.

At Augusta two years, he was a corporal in A company.

(2007 Summer Bayonet)