

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

Norman Samuel Pannell, '25

July 14, 1901 - January 27, 1971

Four Year Cadet:

1. Private Staff; Football
2. Private "D" Company, Football
3. Q.M. Sergeant; Football; Wrestling
4. Q.M. Sergeant; Football, Assistant Captain Wrestling team.

Despite his smallness of stature "Rooster" proved to be a giant in the Augusta line. He has showed us that it does not necessarily take a large man to play this position efficiently. Although handicapped during part of the season by injuries, he played a steady game all year at his hole and was particularly strong on the defense. "Chicken" leaves us this finals and his loss next season will be keenly felt.

ROANOKE-A funeral service for Norman Samuel Pannell, 69, of 836 Hamilton Ave., SW will, be held at Oakey's Chapel at 2:30 p.m. Friday with burial in Evergreen Cemetery. Mr. Pannell died Wednesday in a Roanoke Hospital.

He was a retired employee of the Epes-Fitzgerald Paper Co. in Richmond.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Janie Draper Pannell; two daughters, Mrs. C. John Renick of Roanoke County, and Mrs. Kathryn Gallagher of Richmond; four sisters, Mrs. Cyrus G. (Cora) Schwab, Mrs. H. Clifford (Bess) Schwab, Mrs. Lula Vance, and Miss Mary L. Pannell, all of Waynesboro; four brothers, Arthur F. Pannell of Clifton Forge, Frank A. Pannell and Aaron A. Pannell, both of Waynesboro, and Stover B. Pannell of Staunton; and four grandchildren.
