

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

POLISHER, CHARLES K. '44

Died 6 April 2002. Lived in Pennsylvania until 1974, and spent the rest of his life in Colorado, Florida, Arizona, California and Mexico.

Attorney, boxer, Merchant Marine, sailor, farmer. Creator of sumi nagashi paintings, wrote haiku, made bamboo flutes, gardening and landscaping, enthusiastic cook and avid reader.

Survived by his children, Chuck, Jamie, Rachel and Lisa; his former wives, Miriam and Julia Polisher; his father, Edward, and his faithful companion, Boomer. His oldest son, Ed, preceded him in death in 2001.

The children request that memorials be in the form of stories or photos sent to: Lisa Polisher, 730 Clermont Street, Denver, CO 80220. E-mail: LPolisher@qwest.net

At Augusta two years.

(2002 Summer and 2003 Winter Bayonet)