

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

PONDFIELD, LEONARD '49

Died 5 May 2009 in Baltimore.

Pondfield owned a men's clothing store until 1986 when he retired for the first time. He came out of retirement to become the office administrator for an ex-customer in the wholesale flower business. He retired again after 14 years. President of condo board. World traveler.

Survived by his wife of fifty-three years, Carol; four children, and nine grandchildren.

At AMA two years: Manager, Swim Team, A Company.

(2010 Summer Bayonet)