

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

PUGH, JORDAN ANTHONY IV '57

Jordan Anthony Pugh IV, 70, passed away 12 November 2007, in Sentara Norfolk General Hospital. He was a lifelong resident of Norfolk and was a son of the late Jordan A. and Caroline Cunningham Pugh III. He retired as a systems analyst with civil service at NAVSYSCOM. He was a real estate broker with Coldwell Banker.

He was a member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, the Virginia Association of Realtors, founded the NAVAIR Fishing Club and was past president of the Army-Navy Fishing Club. He was a member of the George Washington Chapter and Norfolk Chapter of S.A.R. He was a member and past president of the Old Dominion University Alumni Association Capital Area Region, and formerly served on its Board of Directors. He was a member of the Ad Astra per Aspera Society at Augusta Military Academy.

He served in the U.S. Marine Corps Reserves and was an Intelligence Chief, Aviation, S-2, VMA-233. Pugh worked for civil service, Department of Defense, from 1966 until his retirement in 1989 and then was with UNISYS Corp., DOT/TCC.

Pugh attended the Norfolk Academy and graduated from Augusta Military Academy. He studied as an undergraduate at the College of William and Mary and the University of Virginia and did graduate work at the Wharton School of Finance at the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia.

He is survived by his wife of 35 years, Ardith Rockar Pugh; a son, David Anthony Pugh and wife Jacqueline of Strasburg, Va.; and a brother, Henry C. Pugh of Norfolk. A memorial service was held in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Norfolk, by the Rev. F. Scott Hennessy. Private burial was held at a later date.

At Augusta three years: Battalion Sergeant-Major; Ad Astra per Aspera, fencing. Jordan had been trying to put together a "mini-reunion" of AMA alumni in the Tidewater area.

(Reported by Angus Hines '43 and Jim Lane '49.)

(2008 Winter Bayonet)