Punchy describes Don, but not completely. Don wanted to get an education, and nothing has side-tracked him. 'Course, some of the questions he asks, and some of his exploits do cause his numerous friends to wonder, but they don't doubt his loyalty, his honesty and his ability. In athletics, Don has excelled, and he is a born leader. If he stays on the right track, he'll be as successful after graduation as he has-been at AMA.

Donald Radford, age 80, of Geneva, New York, passed away on Friday, June 21, 2019 peacefully at home surrounded by his family.

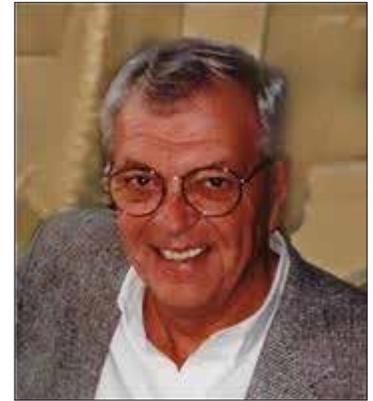

A celebration of life service will be held on Tuesday, June 25 at 10:00 a.m. at The Presbyterian Church, 24 Park Place, Geneva, NY.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that you would consider making a memorial contribution to Ontario-Yates Hospice, 756 Pre-Emption Rd, Geneva, NY 14456.

Don was born on April 10, 1939 in Roanoke, Virginia the son of the late Hannon Radford and Della Baldwin Brady. Don attended Augusta Military Academy and served in the U.S. Army Reserves for six years. He so enjoyed his over 40 year career in sales at Goulds Pumps in Seneca Falls. Don loved being a salesman. Every customer became a friend and every opportunity for a sale was a challenge he relished.

Don married the former Frances Irvin in 1959 and together they had four wonderful daughters, who were a great source of love and pride. In 1999 he married B.J. Radford and lovingly took two more children into his life. His children, son-in-laws, grandchildren and great grandchildren he considered to be the most important things in his life.

Don was a collector of people, a founding member of the Elite Golf Club (later renamed the Rad Golf Club), a regular at the Tim Horton's coffee clutch, famous for giving away golf balls and golf shirts, lived in the best neighborhood in Geneva (surrounded by the best neighbors), a lover of Syracuse sports and the Yankees, a long time member of Seneca Lake Country Club and later Wayne Hills Country Club. He was a one-of-a-kind gentlemen. Always kind, generous, funny and always there for everyone.

Don suffered through a long battle with Lewy Body Dementia, never complaining or giving in, and fought hard until the end. Many people assisted him in this fight, through friendship, support, care and love. Your involvement made a big difference and is much appreciated.
