

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

RAPTIS, ANDREW A. JR. '52

13 June 2003, in Charleston, VW, after a very brief illness, age 69.

A graduate of Hampden-Sydney and the University of West Virginia College of Law. Attorney in Charleston and owner for 20 years of the Sterling Restaurant.

Former President, West Virginia Restaurant Association, he was active with the National Multiple Sclerosis Society and the Charleston and West Virginia Rockets football organizations. He was a member of the Elks Club, Lions Club, Junior Chamber of Commerce, Beni Kedem Shrine Temple of Charleston, and served for several years as a Boy Scoutmaster, and a member of the First Presbyterian Church

Survived by his wife of 37 years, Constance; twin sons, Stephen and Philip, both attorneys of Arlington, VA; three sisters: Helen Popa of Beaverton, OR; Elizabeth Regan of Williamsburg; and Dorothy Lowery of Little River, SC.

At Augusta two years: Sergeant, A Company; Honor Roll; wrestling team.

(2003 Fall Bayonet)