

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

REISACHER, COL ROBERT W. '38

2010. Santa Fe, NM, 89. Received a BA in architecture from Carnegie-Mellon University.

Served four years in World War II using his training to build a mess hall on Guadalcanal while the fighting still raged. He later was assigned to Tinian and later, Alaska.

After serving on the Army Aviation Board at Fort Rucker, he became commander of the 7th Aviation Battalion in the Korean War. Attended Princeton Grad School, University of Edinburgh, and George Washington University. He taught history at West Point and was XO of the 11th Aviation Battalion, 1st Cavalry Division in Vietnam, his third war. He was a Master Aviator and earned the Bronze Star. Finished his military career as military assistant to the Under Secretary of the Army at the Pentagon.

In civilian life, he supervised the construction of a desalinization plant in Saudi Arabia, built an airfield in Jeddah and joined CM, Inc. of Houston in charge of their projects in Egypt, Saudi Arabia and Tunisia. Lived in the Middle East for a number of years.

Survived by his wife of 63 years, a son, a daughter, and a grandson.

At AMA two years: Sergeant, Band Company; Football; wrestling team; Honor Roll; Monogram Club; Battalion bugler.