

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

REITH, WILLIAM F. '28

Died of heart ailments on 4 September 1993 at Arlington Hospital. He was the retired credit manager and comptroller for the Washington Post, which he served from 1932 until 1973.

Reith was a major contributor to alumni and scholarship funds.

Survived by brother, Joseph A. Reith, of Rochester, IN.

At Augusta two years: Corporal, B Company; Baseball, track; YMCA Cabinet.