Pete knows every inch of AMA's tennis court. And Pete, too, has been a real operator.
Honor Roll, Color Guard.
Honor Military all combine to keep Pete in a select group. Pete would rather fight the battle in arguing than switch. And he's held forth for hours in and out of class. A real character, Pete's laugh and sharp wit tell that he is around. Pete is another Stuart Hall regular. Critical, yes; imaginative, yes; Pete has really bubbled at AMA.

Peter P. Roenke, avid soccer fan

Peter P. Roenke, 72, of Fenwick Island passed away Wednesday, Aug. 5, 2020, at Beebe Healthcare in Lewes. He was born March 3, 1948, in Geneva, N.Y., son of the late Richard and Jacqueline Roenke.

Peter attended military prep school, after which he proudly and honorably served in the U.S. Army. He earned master's degrees in psychology and English, and owned and operated NAPCO Publishers in Virginia. In 1980 Peter moved to Delaware, where he started Coastal Images Inc. (Beach-net.com), a publishing and internet design and hosting company. An active member in the recovery community, he inspired and helped many people who were struggling. Peter was a voracious reader and a die-hard supporter of the Duke Blue Devils basketball team. He was an avid soccer fan and very involved in the River Soccer Club of Roxana. Above all, Peter cherished time spent with those he held most dear. He was a loving and devoted husband, father, brother, and friend who will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

Peter is survived by his beloved wife of 33 years, Michelle (Cowan) Roenke of Fenwick Island; his son, Pierson Roenke
