

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

SALASKY, LEONARD '43

Died 6 June 2006, in Sacramento, CA, aged 81.

In the lumber business in New York State before moving West to Sacramento with his brother. Served in CID (Criminal Investigations), U.S. Army during World War II. Left the lumber business in 1972 and went in the men's retail consignment business (his wife, Carol, was in the female consignment business).

A golfer and an avid gin rummy player, he and Carol took a four-month motor home tour of the United States after retirement.

Survived by his wife, Carol; three daughters, Sheryl Salasky of Talkeetna, AK, Marilou Salasky Goldman of Tel Aviv, Israel, and Meg Salasky Schentes of Frisco, TX; and a son, Craig Salasky of Fair Oaks, CA.

At Augusta one year: C Company.

(2006 Fall Bayonet)