In Loving Memory of Robert Goodloe Saunders II

(LTC, USAF, Ret'd)

September 10, 1938 - June 3, 2015

Goodloe served honorably and with distinction as an officer in the U.S. Air Force for 24 years. He earned the Bronze Star during the Vietnam War. Other awards earned were: Meritorious Service Medal, Air Force Commendation Medal, Short and Long Tour Ribbons, Vietnam Service and Campaign medals, Republic of Vietnam Gallantry Cross, and Expert Marksmanship Ribbon (even though he killed only one deer and one turkey in all his years of hunting).

He was crucial in the development of the Augusta Military Academy Alumni Museum, an active member of the Crozet Lions Club, and honorary president of the JRG Hunt Club. He had a tender heart and genuine love. He was our strength and moral compass.

Goodloe will be greatly missed and is survived by Daisy, his beloved dog; his wife, Brenda; his children: Robert, Bailey, Jamie, Christie; his grandsons: Samuel, Logan, Henry, Connor, Houston; his daughter-in-law, Joanna, and son-in-law, Scott.
