

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

John W. Schwarzmann, '63

June 9, 1942 - June 27, 2021

B Company; Pvt. 1,2; P/Sgt. 3; Cotillion Club; Football; (3rd year); Roller Rifles 3.

“Peachie” competes with AI in College Algebra, but at Lauderdale, it’s Peachie alone — all the way. Jack’s prime purpose seems to be in plotting adventurous travels, planning vacations, and socializing at Fairfax. Fun to be with, Jack has a rollicking sense of humor. As captain of the barracks team of ‘63, Jack lived up to his responsibilities. Jack plays the benevolent listener, but if he has a plan, there is no stopping him.

Jack was among a group of pranksters who blocked the front entrance by piling chairs during the night.

John Wright (Jack) Schwarzmann Sr., age 79, died in The Villages, FL on June 27, 2021.

He was born and raised in Alexandria, VA and a graduate of Augusta Military Academy. Jack enlisted in the Navy finishing his tour in Newport, RI where he met and married Carol B. Harrington of South Dartmouth, MA. Jack worked for 31 years for Cameo Curtains and Crown Home Furnishings living in South Dartmouth. His last position at Cameo was the Plant Manager and he went on to become a senior manager for CHF overseeing quality control.

Jack retired to The Villages, FL and was an avid golfer. He parred the last hole he played the day before he passed. Jack is one of many unsung heroes that did not take short cuts, just did things the correct way to serve his country and support his family not seeking the limelight.

He is survived by his wife of 54 years, Carol, their two sons Andrew and John, and six grandchildren (Andrew Jr, Mitchel, Trevor, Lindsey, Aubrey, Stephen). In lieu of flowers we are asking you honor Jack with a random act of kindness.
