

Remembering our brothers who have passed from this life

SHEPHERD, JOHN `42

Died 7 February 2013 in Lincoln, CA, aged 90.

Amateur archaeologist and historian. Graduate, Placer College, CA.

Trained as an aircraft technician, he spent World War II in Hawaii as a civilian trainer. At McClellan Air Force Base, he was a civilian electronics specialist, and during the 1950s and 1960s, he worked at missile installations in England, Spain, France and Turkey.

Survived by his wife of 35 years, Kathy; five children and five grand-children.

At Augusta one year: Private, C Company.

(2013 Summer Bayonet)